

California School Nurses Organization

Southern Section Spring Conference 2022

Saturday, May 14, 2022
8:00 AM – 1:30 PM (5 CH)
(8:00 Breakfast and Registration)

The Historic Mission Inn

3649 Mission Inn Avenue
Riverside, CA 92501

Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DHH) Resources for the School Nurse/Health Office Sid Shapiro, M.Ed. in Deaf Education and M.Ed. in Special Education Credentialed Teacher for LBUSD

Sid has been a credentialed teacher for over 20 years. She has worked in Long Beach Unified at Lakewood High School teaching the DHH students for 11 years and 4 plus years at Cleveland Elementary with the DHH students. Sid will be presenting information on the Deaf culture, accommodations for the DHH students for their IEPs, plus in the classroom and teaching some sign language that can be useful for the school nurse to communicate with the DHH students.

Building a Safe Q-mmunity Brandon Messina, (He/Him/His), M.Ed LGBTQ+ Support Services Lead for LBUSD

In California, schools are legally bound to have safe, inclusive, and affirming supports in place for our LGBTQ+ students, families, and staff. Brandon will help guide us with recent legislation, affirming and inclusive language, as well as answer questions you may have.

Diabetes Update Elizabeth Beko, BSN, RN, PHN, CDE CDE CHOC and School Nurse BPUSD

Liz has been a Certified Diabetes Educator at Children's Hospital of Orange County's Endocrine Clinic since 2006. She continues to work part-time at CHOC and will update us on the latest trends, how COVID affected diabetes, and help us brush up on carb counting. She will also let us know of new technology and what to expect coming down the pike. Liz was a key stakeholder in initiating the first school nurse education conference in the early 2000s. The last four years she has been working for the Buena Park School District as a part-time school nurse. She will obtain her school nurse credential in May 2022 from California State University, Fullerton.
